The kids will also be performing at the ELC and possibly the Upper Elementary. April will let us know when the school performances are so that we may attend if possible.

Big Read Update

Shaun gave us an update on her meeting with Joan regarding possible events for The Big Read. She is currently working on a grant to fund the activities and has contacted an author who is friends with Charles Portiss and also Kim Darby about possibly attending the kick off event in September of 2015.

Open Discussion

Someone suggested that it would be nice for the high school band to eventually put on a concert in the park.
